PRESS RELEASE FROM THE PREMIER, MR. DUNSTAN.

NORWOOD PARADE OFFICE.

9.1.73

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, is opening a special office on the Norwood Parade to deal with enquiries and problems from people in his Norwood electorate.

The office is at 242 The Parade and will be open from Monday, January 15, during normal office hours on weekdays and on Saturday mornings.

Mr. Dunstan will spend most Saturday mornings in the office interviewing people who want to see him personally.

"I have been dealing with constituents' problems at the Premier's Office in Victoria Square and at my Kent Town home in the evenings.

"However, this is not always convenient for people in the electorate, particularly pensioners, busy housewives with families and working men so I decided to open an office in the heart of the electorate", Mr. Dunstan said.

The new office is on the telephone, 32-4949, for people who want to make initial enquiries or arrange an appointment.

Mr. Dunstan has represented the Norwood electorate, (which embraces Hackney, College Park, St. Peters, Joslin, Royston Park, Marden, Stepney, Evandale, Beulah Park, Kensington and Kensington Park as well as Norwood itself), in the House of Assembly since 1953.
